ABOUT

Hashmeta Pte Ltd is a fully Integrated Digital Marketing Agency. Crafted by a robust team of creative strategists, campaign planners, and content strategists supported by strong digital expertise and proficiency in data analytics, each piece of content is designed to complement our client's marketing efforts and is optimised for the digital space.

Headquartered in Singapore it now has operations in China, Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia, and more recently, Vietnam.

Our strategy is focused on helping brands to stay ahead of the competition and keeping pace with the consumers.

“And it’s not just work..... they enjoyed the camaraderie too.”

WHY US?

We are passionate about building an amazing team of social media ninjas. When you work at Hashmeta, you’re not just joining a team of brilliant minds, you’re also joining our family of passionate internet marketers.

In our team, we have a few former interns who returned to join us upon graduation. That says a lot!

Our interns who have successfully completed their internships have all said that their internship exceeded their expectations. They are grateful for the real-life exposure with real projects and clients. They complete their internship with far greater knowledge and skill and a bagful of experience to prepare them when they eventually complete their education and start their career. And it’s not just work..... they enjoyed the camaraderie too.

Below, a few of our many intern’s feedback...

“During this internship I was able to see and analyse published social media posts. I learnt how the different social media formats can indirectly affect a post’s performance and how we can allocate ad budgets to ensure our ad spent is fully optimized. ”

Digital Marketing Intern from NTU Nanyang School of Business

“I appreciate the different learning opportunities from different accounts that I helped out in. They are all very different so I can get a good idea how things work with different clients, and hence ... adapt my working style.”

<https://jurongfrogfarm.com.sg/about-us/>

HOW TO APPLY?

Interested parties can give us a croak at events@jurongfrogfarm.com.sg

ABOUT

Jurong Frog Farm was established in 1981 by Mr Wan Bock Thiaw along Old Jurong Road, servicing the bustling predominantly Chinese eateries by providing a reliable, high quality source of live and processed American Bullfrog.

We relocated to a 1.1ha plot in the Lim Chu Kang Agrotechnology Park in 1993 developing a purpose built abattoir and quick freeze facility expanding his product offerings.

A big part of our R&D efforts were in frogs related products diversification. Some examples are in American Bullfrogs' Oviduct; more commonly known as Hashima and also the frog frames, previously was discarded as an offcut, now sold through vets as a specialised pet food.

The most recent partnership with a local biotech company also revalorised the American Bullfrog skin into a series of bioactive collagen range of cosmetic skincare.

At Jurong Frog Farm, our mission is to be innovative in frogs related products and to live up to our promise to deliver fresh and high quality farm produce reared naturally.

“our mission is to be innovative in frogs related products”

WHY US?

Join our family and gain a unique work experience working alongside the farm owners and our army of American Bullfrogs to see the ins and outs of running an agri-business. Gain this challenging and rewarding opportunity to develop a social network with our local producers while promoting farm products and activities to schools and Singapore-made novel cosmeceutical products to local and international clients.
